Anthropologie Now Open in Grand Boulevard at Sandestin

Three national retailers make their Northwest Florida debut

Miramar Beach, Fla., (May 11, 2016) – National women’s retailer Anthropologie is now open in Grand Boulevard at Sandestin, joining recently opened men’s and women’s retailers Lilly Pulitzer and Vineyard Vines. All three store are located in the new Center building, located on the west side of Grand Boulevard, across from the Boulevard 10 Cinema.

Founded in Wayne, Pennsylvania in the autumn of 1992, Anthropologie remains a destination for women wanting a curated mix of clothing, accessories, and home décor that reflects their personal style and fuels their lives' passions, from fashion to art to entertaining.

The beautiful new store has more than 9,000 square feet and clothing, accessories, and homewares are artfully displayed throughout the store. Miramar Beach is located in Northwest Florida, a major vacation destination with award-winning beaches and popular South Walton beach communities.

“Anthropologie is among the most prized national retailers in the country and they set the perfect tone for retail in Grand Boulevard, perfectly complementing our other recent store openings, including Lilly Pulitzer and Vineyard Vines,” said Stacey Brady, spokesperson for Grand Boulevard at Sandestin.

Anthropologie opening tops off a period of substantial expansion and growth for Grand Boulevard’s Town Center. Within the last year, other new retail and restaurant openings include J. McLaughlin, Starbucks Coffee House, Jimmy John’s, The Craft Bar, Menchie’s Frozen Yogurt and Grand Fitness set for a summer opening. Additional national retail store announcements for 2017 are coming soon.
